

Information Systems, MS-IS

For additional information about graduate programs within the College of Business, please contact graduate advisor Jennifer Pettitt at GradBiz@uah.edu (gradbiz@uah.edu). Information about the application process may be found in the Graduate Studies section of the catalog.

Purpose

The purpose of the MS-IS degree program is to prepare students to enter the information technology (IT) profession in a wide variety of positions. While the curriculum emphasizes both managerial and technical aspects of IT, its overall structure is designed to prepare students for a career leading to managerial- and/or executive-level positions related to IT and Business Information Systems. Students will learn to design, implement, and operate information systems with the purpose of providing organizational decision-makers with the information needed to manage effectively and efficiently. In addition, students will learn to obtain new business insights by using various business analytics and data management tools.

Program prerequisites are kept to a minimum and the program is designed to meet the needs of students with a wide variety of educational backgrounds.

Program Prerequisites

Program prerequisites include a bachelor's degree in any field and demonstration of competency in each of the following three areas:

1. Computer Applications Competency. Students must demonstrate this competency by passing an on-line computer applications competency exam or by successful completion of the IS 146 or its equivalent. IS 146 or its equivalent will not count towards the requirements of the MS-IS degree.
2. Computer Programming Competency. Students must demonstrate this competency by passing an on-line computer programming exam or by successful completion of IS 210 or its equivalent. IS 210 or its equivalent will not count towards the requirements of the MS-IS degree.
3. Information Systems Competency. Students must demonstrate this competency by passing an on-line IS competency exam or by successful completion of IS 600, Information Technology in the Modern Business Environment, or its equivalent. IS 600 or its equivalent will not count towards the requirements of the MS-IS degree.

Degree Requirements

The MS-IS program consists of 30 semester hours of graduate coursework. The coursework includes a six-course core that is required of all students, nine credit hours of directed electives, and three credit hours of business electives. The directed elective choices are designed to provide students a broader understanding of multiple business functions normally expected for executive-level positions in an organization.

IS 691, Information Systems Strategy and Applications, is the capstone course and should be taken toward the end of the student's program. A student must earn a grade of B or better in IS 691.

² Students are required to satisfy the prerequisites for any elective they choose. Students who wish to substitute some other courses as directed electives may seek prior approval for such a substitution by contacting the Director of Graduate Programs in UAH Business School.

Additional Information

Thesis Option

A thesis option is available. Students interested in this option should contact the both the faculty member who the student wants to serve as the thesis advisor and the Director of Graduate Programs in the College of Business before completing 12 hours of graduate study. If selected, the student will register for the IS 699 Masters Thesis course for 6 credit hours in lieu of 6 credit hours of directed and business electives.

Transfer Credit

Up to 12 semester hours of graduate credit taken at other universities may be transferred to meet MS-IS degree requirement. Inquiries about the transferability of specific courses should be directed to the CBA Director of Graduate Programs, who will consult with the IS faculty to determine whether the content of the class will be accepted for transfer credit.
