Introduction

The acquisition of a second language, and through it an understanding of other cultures, is a rich academic experience for all students, not only in the arts, humanities, and social sciences, but also in business, education, nursing, the natural sciences, and engineering. Knowing how to communicate effectively in another language significantly enhances one's career opportunities and contributions as a citizen. This page provides an overview of the academic offerings of the Department of World Languages and Cultures and placement procedures for students preparing to begin language study.

Mission Statement

The Department of World Languages and Cultures is dedicated to teaching students the language skills and cultural knowledge necessary for succeeding in today's multilingual world of cultural diversity, global markets, political interdependence, and international scientific and cultural collaboration.

Within the B.A. in Foreign Languages, students may choose French, German, Russian, or Spanish as a focus language, and may also concentrate in Foreign Language and International Trade in cooperation with the College of Business. Students may also pursue foreign language teacher certification (http://catalog.uah.edu/undergrad/colleges-departments/education/curriculum-instruction/foreign-language/) in French, German, or Spanish in conjunction with the College of Education, and they may minor in any of the four focus languages, or take Arabic or Japanese at the introductory and intermediate levels. The department also offers the Global Professional Pathways Certificate, which allows students to explore world language, cultures, and careers through language and global studies courses, potential study or internship abroad, and the preparation of a global professional portfolio. The department also serves nursing and pre-health students by offering Spanish for Medical Professionals periodically at the introductory level.

In addition, the department assists students in identifying study abroad opportunities and domestic and international internships that give students cultural and professional experience that greatly enhances their career opportunities after graduation. World Languages and Cultures also sponsors language clubs and extracurricular activities that contribute to the university's rich campus life.

The department offers an integrated curriculum comprising the teaching of linguistic proficiency and the promotion of a critical awareness of other cultures. Faculty use traditional methods as well as varied media and new technologies to engage students with world languages, literature, and film in their historical, social, and interdisciplinary contexts. World Languages and Cultures faculty promote academic pluralism by fostering a variety of interpretive and pedagogical approaches, and by virtue of their commitment to the highest standards in teaching, research, and service, they aim to uphold and further strengthen the national and international standing of UAH.

Languages Offered

Arabic, French, German, Japanese, Russian, Spanish

The Department of World Languages and Cultures offers a B.A. in Foreign Languages. A student may choose a focus language of French, German, Russian, or Spanish, and may also concentrate in Foreign Language and International Trade or pursue teaching certification. Arabic and Japanese cannot be taken as majors or minors, but can be taken to satisfy the language requirement for the B.A. degree or as electives. Certificate programs are available in our four major languages and may also be available in Arabic and Japanese depending on current course offerings.

General Education Requirements and Placement Procedures

Three semester hours of credit in one foreign language are required for most of the B.A. degrees. Most introductory language sequences begin in the fall semester, but more limited offerings of 101 level courses are available in spring and summer for students who need to complete their requirements.
Placement Procedures

Students with no previous language instruction or experience in the language they choose to study are placed into WLC 101, while students with some level of instruction or experience are placed in a variety of ways depending on their previous coursework or skill level. Since placement procedures vary, students with previous experience in French, German, Russian, or Spanish are encouraged to take a placement exam. The exam is computerized and can be taken for a $10 fee, payable to the exam website by card. Links to register and take a placement exam for any of the four major languages can be found on the WLC Student Resources (https://www.uah.edu/ahs/departments/world-languages/student-resources/) page. Students seeking placement for Arabic or Japanese, or who have other questions regarding placement should contact the WLC department at wlc@uah.edu. NOTE: By itself, the placement exam does not grant any academic credit. Departmental credit is only granted to students in WLC major, minor, or certificate programs who have completed additional WLC coursework at the appropriate level.

Read below for placement information related to various populations of students.

Native or Near-Native Speakers: Native and near-native speakers are those who have achieved fluency in a language and who have had formal education in that language. Native or near-native speakers of a foreign language may not take introductory and intermediate courses in that language, but are welcome to take upper level courses in their language or introductory level courses in another language. Students in this category should contact the department (wlc@uah.edu) for assistance with placement and registration, and to see if a placement exam is needed. Native or near-native speakers pursuing a major or minor in that language may earn up to six (6) hours of departmental credit that will satisfy the Charger Foundations language requirement for the B.A. Students in this category who are only interested in taking one lower-level language course to complete a language or humanities requirement should enroll in a WLC 101 course in a language other than the one(s) in which they are fluent, or enroll in a course at the WLC 300 level and request approval for the course to be counted in their Charger Foundations.

Heritage Speakers: Heritage speakers are classified as individuals who have grown up speaking a language, but who have little or no formal education in that language. Heritage speakers are not allowed to take WLC 100 or 200 level courses without special permission. Students in this category must still take a minimum of three (3) additional semester hours of foreign language course work to complete Charger Foundations requirements for the B.A., and should take a placement exam (https://www.uah.edu/ahs/departments/world-languages/student-resources/) and contact wlc@uah.edu for help with placement and registration. Heritage speakers pursuing a major or minor in their heritage language and who place above the WLC 102 level may earn up to six (6) hours of departmental credit that will satisfy the Charger Foundations language requirement for the B.A.

Transfer Students with College Language Credits: Students who have earned language credits at another college or university will be placed into the next logical course in the language sequence. If students have questions about whether they are prepared for the level of language courses at UAH, they are encouraged to contact wlc@uah.edu a faculty member in their language of interest for guidance, or to take a placement exam (https://www.uah.edu/ahs/departments/world-languages/student-resources/) to confirm placement, and to contact the WLC department at wlc@uah.edu for help confirming their placement levels may be adjusted downward.

Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate (IB), Seal of Biliteracy, and CLEP Examinations: The University will award credit to students who have earned a score of three or higher on Advanced Placement (AP) Program examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board according to the following scale:

- Score of 3: 6 semester hours credit (i.e. through WLC 102, 3 semester hours each course)
- Score of 4: 9 semester hours credit (through WLC 201)
- Score of 5: 12 semester hours credit (through WLC 202)

The AP credit thus awarded will satisfy Charger Foundations Requirements for the B.A. and count toward a major, minor, or certificate. However, it will be recorded without grades or quality points and will not be included in the calculation of the grade point average.

Students scoring 5-7 on the Higher Level IB exam will be awarded 15 hours of credit (through WLC 301). Currently, there is no placement procedure for students who have completed the Standard Level IB exam. Those students should take the Web Cape International Foreign Language Placement Exam and consult with a faculty member to determine placement. Placement exams can be scheduled by emailing the WLC department at wlc@uah.edu.

Students who have earned the Seal of Biliteracy who wish to continue their language studies should contact the WLC department at wlc@uah.edu for assistance with placement or take the placement exam (https://www.uah.edu/ahs/departments/world-languages/student-resources/). Currently, there is not a standard placement or credit-granting procedure for the Seal, but the WLC department looks forward to working with students who have earned this distinction.
Students with CLEP examination scores in French, German, or Spanish will be granted credit for WLC 101, or WLC 101 and 102 depending on their score, following the UAH course placement guidelines (https://catalog.uah.edu/undergrad/policies-procedures/course-placement-credit-examination/) for CLEP exams.

Students Planning to Earn a WLC Major, Minor, or Certificate: If students wish to major or minor in French, German, Russian, or Spanish, they may take the placement exam to test out of a maximum of twelve hours of course work (WLC 101, 102, 201, 202).

After taking the placement exam (https://www.uah.edu/ahs/departments/world-languages/student-resources/), students majoring or minoring in a world language will be placed in an appropriate higher level language course. They will receive credit hours, without grade/quality points, for up to two 100 or 200 level language courses that they have tested out of after passing the next higher-level course. If students test out of more than two courses, the remaining courses will be waived from the major or minor requirements with no credit hours granted.

Students pursuing the Global Professional Pathways Certificate may also test out of language courses, but no courses may be waived from certificate requirements. This means that if a student tests out of more than the six (6) hours allowed for department credit, the remaining hours must be fulfilled by substituting other relevant courses to be determined in consultation with a WLC advisor.

All students, irrespective of language background and placement, must take all remaining upper-level coursework to complete the major, minor, or certificate.
